Reviews:

Most Wanted Component Award 2012, StereoTimes, January 2013:

"...I have had time only to try this Power Chip only on the HB PowerSlave, but there it is miraculous. The sound with it has more punch, detail, sweetness, and is very musical. Never have I had this level of music reproduction... Like other WA-Quantum Chips, the Power Chip will stay in my system..."

Norm Luttbeg, StereoTimes September 2012:

"...their impact on the sound was just spectacular! I just sat and listened to all my sample cuts as well as many, many other albums." Check out the review

Mike Silvertan, StereoTimes August 2012:

"...I've applied and removed the chips often enough to be as sure as I'll ever be that they're effective. Since I'm so tickled by what they accomplish I'm reluctant to wear them out with further, quite unnecessary, on-off comparisons. Given a decent recording, they bring life to the occasion..." - check out the review

Clement Perry, StereoTimes April 2012:

"In essence, the overall presence and transparency of my big rig has been improved by the inclusion of the WA Quantum Speaker Chips. At $130.00 a pair, I consider these a steal..." check out the review

Customer feedback:

"...installed the RED fuses & WA-Quantum chips over the weekend & the results are amazing. Such a pristine sound!"
"Speck. Tack. Ular... the results were just astonishing, and I don't use that word like audio writers do...I was astonished these little critters could get rid of so much hash and grain. I have good cords! What are these things doing???? Just amazing..."

"...the chips on the transformers were good, on the fuses, I got just drop-dead gorgeous results. I don't know if that is in combination with the transformer chips, as I have no inclination to take them out for an A-B. It's like my amplifier runs on battery power, it's so quiet. They make orchestral work in particular really, really fun to listen to – anything live..."

"...lastly, there are the WAs. They are in the hall of fame. Presuming you've wrung out the rest of your system, you just have no idea what improvement awaits. They are simply the best improvement in sound for the money you can get. I don't know how they work...heck, I don't even want to know – they might have to shoot me – but they work..."

"...duly installed into my Conrad Johnson CA200 Amp; remarkable effect; bit like lifting a veil off the sound. Increased clarity and much more micro-detail. Will certainly buy some more of this technology."

"...I just could'n believe my ears, how music just became so much easier to follow. First I thought it was my imagination running away with me, but did the whole afternoon comparing, and there's no doubt, it's an improvement to my system."

"...today my chips arrived. A pair of speaker chips, 8 fuse chips, and 5 cable chips. The difference is huge. At first I only placed one fuse chip but I could not convince myself there was a difference. Then I placed the speaker chips this was without a doubt a difference but at that point I was not sure if I liked it. Later I placed all the chips I ordered and listened for hours and it really is a bargain. It's the best upgrade for the money I ever made..."

"...I then re-installed all of the Quantums including the fuse chips. What an amazing product. The frequency spectrum presented a clarity like I never heard before. The soundstage benefited immensely from the addition of the Q-Chips. They never messed with the tone, nor did they interfere with the dynamic range. They just made better (better)..."
